SENIOR OFFICERS: J. P. Colglazier, Vice-Pres.; Doris Devereaux, Sec.; Pat Allen, Treas.; Olson Huff, Pres.

Dear Underclassmen:

On the opening day of school in 1950, everyone stared at us. They all asked, "What is invading this once quiet and conservative abode of intellect?" Green dresses, socks, and shoes! Green wheelbarrows! And green people! Yes, we were green but we caught on soon. Our sponsors were Mrs. Collins and Mr. Don Martin. We elected Gary Graves as president of our class. To help him, Bill Herrick was elected vice-president; Charles Rexroat, secretary; and Jeanie Campbell, treasurer. In the spring of the year, we all enjoyed a skating party.

As sophomores, we were still underclassmen, but were undeniably established in S.H.S. as could be seen by the fact that several of our classmates were playing varsity basketball and doing very well in track and softball. To add to our glory, we won the interclass tourney and beat the faculty. Our sponsors, Miss Mary Nicholson and Mr. Don MacDonald, helped guide president, Charles Rexroat; vice-president, Frank Foster; secretary, Frank Zaring; and treasurer, Jack Jackson, through the year to the successful picnic held at Alvin Elrod's farm.

Then at last we were upperclassmen! For our junior year we chose Mac Osborne for president; Frank Foster for vice-president; Charles Rexroat for secretary; and Jack Jackson for treasurer. Miss Ahlf and Mr. Willis were our sponsors. To finance the big event of this year, the Prom, we sold refreshments at basketball games, pencils with pennants during the tourney time, and wreaths at Christmas time.

Along with all this work, we had to have some fun, so we had a class dance and party. Field Day was a rough and tumble affair for all, but the Class of '53 was a little rougher than we were. Our class picnic was held at Spring Mill State Park.

Then spring came and brought with it the Prom. The seniors used every trick in the book to try to find out our theme, but "My Blue Heaven" remained a secret until we issued the invitation to the seniors.

Our Senior year was the shortest, saddest, jolliest, and busiest. We were the "big deals" in S.H.S. even if our class did have only 78 members. Mrs. Dustin and Mr. Schanlaub helped us through the year with our officers: Olson Huff, President; J. P. Colglazier, Vice-Pres.; Doris Devereaux, Secretary; and Pat Allen, Treas.

If we thought we were busy at the first of the year, we hardly knew what was going on at the end of the year. Graduation was the event for which we had been waiting for four years, but also the Senior Class Play, "Green Valley," our class trip to Mammoth Cave, Baccalaureate, Alumni Banquet, Field Day, Honor Day, Senior Day, and the Prom kept us going. That's a brief bit about our four wonderful years in S.H.S., underclassmen. We could go on and on, but lacking room to write more, we'll have to save it for a later date. Best of luck to all of you, and we hope that you have as much fun as we have had.

Junior Class

To you who will someday be jolly juniors,

In September, 1951, there were 145 scared faces wandering around Salem High, but we soon became accustomed to the routine and felt quite at home.

Mrs. Morris and Mr. Willis were our sponsors, and our officers were: President, Jim Hilton; Vice-Pres., Jack Morgan; Secretary, Alene Burns; and Treas., Sally Smith.

We had two skating parties that year.

In our sophomore year we had 125 back with Mrs. Morris and Mr. Oesch as sponsors. We elected these students as officers: President, Keith Hattabaugh; Vice-Pres., Larry Wagers; Secretary, Jane Lloyd; and Treasurer, Chester Nichols.

We had a Halloween dance and in the spring, a picnic at Lake Salinda. One thing unusual about this picnic was that you didn't have to get out into the lake to get wet! (Thanks to the numerous water guns!)

Then came our busy year--we were actually juniors, 103 of us. We chose as officers: President, Jim Hilton; Vice-Pres., Larry Wagers; Secretary, Clara Roop; and Treasurer, Ronald Bell. Our sponsors were Miss Ahlf and Mr. Sears.

We sponsored a junior dance in the fall after a ballgame and a Junior Carnival in the spring and both were huge successes. We also sold concessions at ballgames, sold autograph books and anything else we could think of to make our big event of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom a success. Too, we talked the Seniors into publishing the LYON at the end of the year.

Look forward to this year, kids! You're busy every minute, but you really have lots of fun, up to and including the last activity--the annual Junior Picnic!

Sophomore Class

SOPHOMORE OFFICERS: Carl Rexroat, Pres.; Shirley Weeks, Treas.;
Fern Roop, Sec.; Ernie Baird, Vice Pres.

Hey Kids:

This is how we became "silly sophomores."

In the fall of 1952, 160 of us anxiously awaited that first day of our high school years. We soon became acquainted and elected these students as officers: President, Bill Ellmore; Vice-President, Charles Gater; Secretary, Phyllis Beswick; and Treasurer, Shirley Weeks. Our advisors were Miss Eisenhart and Mr. McDonald.

In February, we had a class party. We all went skating. In spite of many spills and numerous bumps, we had a glorious time.

Our Sophomore year we had 148 back to start the new year. We had as officers; President, Carl Rexroat; Vice-President, Ernie Baird; Secretary, Fern Roop; and Treasurer, Shirley Weeks. Our sponsors were Mrs. Morris and Mr. McConnell.

One of the highlights of the year was our chili supper. All enjoyed dancing and games after first filling themselves to the brim with chili!

It was a wonderful two years and we're eagerly looking forward to our next two, for we know we'll have a wonderful time during those, too. But even when we're having so much fun during our upperclassmen years we'll never forget how much fun it was being a "silly sophomore."

Freshman Class

To those who will soon cross the portals of S.H.S. for the first time:

The Class of 1957 met in September, 1953. We, like most of the others who had just entered high school, were a little green but we soon got over that and were getting around as well as any upperclassman. (Of course, they didn't think so, but we did.)

We had our first class meeting early in the fall and elected as our officers: President, John Rutherford; Vice-President, Kenny Baird; Secretary, Shelby Miller; and Treasurer, Billy Grigsby. Our sponsors were Miss Richey and Mr. Blackman.

Our first party was held in Lyon Hall in November. Entertainment was furnished by games and dancing.

Late in the spring, we had a hike and picnic. Everyone went home tired, but full of lots of good things to eat!

One hundred and sixty-seven of us finished out the year without too many mishaps.

The purpose of the Tri-Hi-Y Club, which is affiliated with the National Y. M. C. A. , is "To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian living." The girls try to live up to this purpose and to build their lives on the four planks of the Tri-Hi-Y platform; Clean Speech, Clean Sports, Clean Scholarship, and Clean Living.

Membership is open to all girls in school. This year the large group was divided into thirteen sections in order to create interest, and to raise funds for their many activities. As a result, the girls have had a most successful and interesting year.

During the bi-monthly meetings the girls plan their activities such as: sending cheer baskets each Christmas, donating to local fund drives, attending district conventions, and money making projects. This year the Talent Show was the highlight and netted a nice profit.

The program of the year is planned by the Council, made-up of the officers and sponsor. This year, guest speakers met and discussed problems the girls are interested in.

But the highlight of the year's activity is the annual Mother and Daughter Banquet held this year, April 8. The theme was "That wonderful inspiration—My Mother."

Much credit for the success of the club should be given to the sponsor, Mrs. Phillips. She has worked with the club from the time it was called Girl Reserve through the Y-Teen to the present Tri-Hi-Y. She advises the girls and helps them keep their goal of life and the goals of the club always in sight. Mrs. Phillips is on the state staff as Tri-Hi-Y advisor for a two-year period.

The Future Homemakers of America is an organization of students studying home-making in Salem High School. This organization came into being through the cooperative efforts of youth enrolled in homemaking to foster leadership and promote better home life for the families of America.

The Salem chapter consists of 126 active members, the largest in the state of Indiana. Membership is open to any girl who has taken one year of Home Economics. Mrs. Mable Edwards is adviser. Through her efforts our chapter has become well known throughout our home state.

The motto of Future Homemakers of America, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the purpose of the organization--learning to live better today in order that our lives and those of our families may be better tomorrow. This gives us an idea of our American youth and how they are striving to make the future better for all.

The red rose is the flower of the organization and red and white are its colors.

Plus the many activities in the local club, these girls attend district and state meetings where they take an active part.

The first week of December was celebrated as Future Homemakers Week. Activities were arranged and each day attention was paid to some phase of their varied interests.

Sunday- attended church as a group

Monday- each girl indentified herself by wearing an apron throughout the day

Tuesday- good deed day

Wednesday- each member wore F. H. A. colors - red and white

Thursday- devoted entirely to publicity

Friday- sold UNESCO stamps

Saturday- food sale.

The purpose of the Dramatics Clubs is to build a high standard of character and culture through dramatics. This is accomplished by the plays produced throughout the year, the programs at the meetings, and the parties such as the Mexican chili supper given this year.

Upperclassmen make up the membership of the Sr. Dramatics Club. These are the more experienced actors and actresses and help train the underclassmen in the art of acting. The Senior Club officers are:

President . . . Sharon Lee Cauble
Vice-President . . Thornton Boling

Secretary . . . Martha Bush
Treasurer . . . Max Hinkle

The Dramatics clubs take great pride in helping present the All-School Plays and the Senior Class Plays which are eagerly anticipated and enjoyed by the entire town.

The Jr. Dramatics club members are freshmen and sophomores who study make-up, costuming stage setting, lighting and sound effects.

The officers of the Junior Club this year were:

President . . . Tom Trueblood
Vice-President . . . Linda Settle

Secretary . . . Shirley Weeks
Treasurer . . Carol Lee Thompson

Miss Myrtle Esther Bush is the sponsor and director of the Dramatics Clubs and should be given much credit for her extensive work in helping the students.

National Thespian Troupe, S.H.S. Chapter No. 1229, the national honor society of dramatics, was organized in S.H.S. in 1952. Membership is restricted to members of either Dramatics Club who show unusual acting ability.

In 1953, several Thespians were featured in "Dramatics," the official Thespian magazine, for their outstanding work in "Glamour Boy," an all-star performance.

Thespians, the goal of each Dramatics Club member, is based on the point system for acting, stagecraft, and committee work.

During 1954 the National Thespian Society celebrates its twenty-fifth year as a recognized organization in the field of high school dramatics. In addition to various individual troupe celebrations, there will be a conference at Indiana University, June 21-26, which many members of the local troupe will attend.

The Booster Club centers around that ever-popular sport--basketball. The club's purpose is to support and back the basketball team. Whenever you hear all that yelling at a basketball game, you can bet it is some Booster Club member carrying out that club purpose.

OFFICERS for 1953-1954, were:

President	Bruce Jacobi	Secretary	Pat Allen
Vice-Pres.	Charles Burgess	Treasurer	Don Godfrey
Sponsors	Miss Richey and Mr. Marshall

One of the most important of the club's activities is the sponsoring of the Booster bus to the out-of-town games. It provides transportation for those who would be unable to attend otherwise, and therefore a larger cheering section at the games.

Several after-the-game dances were held, but the annual "Soc Hop," of course, was the big event. One of the highlights of the dances was inviting the visiting schools.

As tourney time drew near, the Booster Club spent some long hours after school, during study hall and any other time that they had to spare, preparing for the big days at Jeff. Black and Gold shakers were made and a new project was introduced--the girls sported pretty yellow carnations with black S's on them. Real ones, too. They certainly made a pretty sight at the games.

Biology Clubs

The five Biology clubs, affiliated with the National Science Clubs, were the fourteenth to be organized in the state. The varied programs, presented monthly, are conducted by students. Members of the clubs plant trees and aid in Christmas cheer in the community.

The work is supervised and sponsored by Mrs. Effie Mae Phillips, Biology teacher in S.H.S.

THE OFFICERS OF THE CLUBS ARE:

Presidents---Norman Anderson, Randall Applegate, Peggy Ellmore, Doris Devereux, and Kenny Baird.

Vice-Presidents---Jane Fleenor, Maynard Morgan, Dwayne Taylor, Janet Simpson, and Levi Hall.

Secretaries---Kathy Witt, Wanda Lyles, Carolyn Colglazier, John Rutherford, and Sharon Rose Cauble.

Treasurers---G. W. Wagers, Joyce Boling, Jarolyn Smith, Judy Williams, and R. Hurtt.

Historians---Don Williams, Richard Day, Linda Settle, Avis Brough, and Robert Fleenor.

Critics---Helen Casey, Douglas Smith, Boyd Fleenor, James Barrett, and Virginia Nicholson.

Busy! Busy! Who is it that checks out your books or helps with your problems? Why, the student librarians, of course.

Some of the duties of these girls are: filing books, keeping the library neat and orderly, shouldering all the responsibility when Mrs. Collins has a class, and just being general information bureau!

Skill, plus a little entertainment and eats, has made the Chess Club a popular group. Meetings are held every other week in homes of members.

Membership, open to any S.H.S. student, contains about an equal representation of classes, with Mr. Oesch and Mr. Willis, sponsors. The goal of each player is to pass the one above on the ten rung ladder, eventually reaching the top.

At the end of the year, Perry Sampanis held this position with Kent Orr in the next rung.

ROW 1: Annabelle Hoar, Charlene Bowsman, Wilma Sease, Sharon Pirtle, Esther Gilbert, Barbara Menaugh, Alene Burns, Saranna Brown, Nancy Martin, Sue Starr, Peggy Ellmore, Carolyn Colglazier, Mrs. Miriam Baker. ROW 4: Shirley Howard, Mildred Pendency, Betty Hollrah, Bonnie Miller, Jane Burgin, Patty May, Martha Bush, Marilyn Elliott, Mary Jane Humphrey, Martha Fielding, Edith Hollrah.

Officers for the year 1953-54 were: Pres., Edith Hollrah; V. Pres., J. Smith; Sec.-Treas., P. Shanks; Librarians, A. Burns, E. Gilbert; Adv. Comm., S. Smith, P. Ellmore.

The Salem High School Girls' Choir this year consists of fifty-one girls. Although music reading ability isn't required, some basic requirements must be met before a girl may become a member of the choir. In this group, two girls, Mary Jane Humphrey and Lenetta Smedley, have been members their four years in S.H.S., and were awarded a pin on Honor Day.

No doubt the director, Mrs. Miriam Baker, often wonders if the girls will stop chattering long enough to practice their singing, because the girls love to talk almost as well as they love to sing. Apparently they do though, because they have brought home many honors from state and district contests. For several years, the Chorus has won first, both in the district and the state contests. This year, it placed second in the state.

During the year the girls have sung for Convocations, Mother-Daughter Banquet, Christmas Concert, and at Baccalaureate.

Championship Band

"It's a pleasure to watch you and not have to write anything"-James Noble.

"One of the best bands I've ever seen, I'm sure"-Maurice Shadley.

"If this band would lift its knees higher, it could compare to Ohio State University Band"-
Don Hanna

These comments were expressed at the marching Contest at Speedway, Indiana, in October when the band won a first division, lacking only one point having a perfect score.

Not only does the band march at contests, but they perform at home basketball games.

At the Solo and Ensemble Contest at Hanover College this year, the band won 75 first division medals. Moving from a BB class up to a B class, and into tougher competition, the band received a first at the Concert Contest at Franklin.

After participating and winning all contests, a two-day tour to Franklin and Noblesville came as a partial reward. Along the way the band played for several schools, stayed overnight at Noblesville.

In April they attended the annual Southern Indiana Band Festival, this year held at Brownstown, where 450 band students from New Albany, Mitchell, Brownstown, Seymour, Bedford, and Salem combined to form one large band under the direction of such noted conductors and musical celebrities as Harold Walters, Karl King, David Bennett, and Paul Yoder, who have been selected to direct at one time or another in the three years of the festival.

The band has won the marching contest at the State Lions' Convention, was invited to the Kentucky State Band Clinic, where they introduced a new number by Harold Walters, has been requested by several high schools to perform at school convocations, has been invited to perform at Butler,
DePauw and Indiana Universities.

Mr. Vaught, the director, is one of the main reasons that the SHS Band has been ranked in the first division for the past several years. An I. U. graduate, with an M. A. from I. S. T. C. he came to S. H. S. six years ago, and has led our band to a long string of first awards.

We are proud of George Vaught, who has developed our band into the "fastest rising band in the state of Indiana."

Farm Project

The Agricultural class has been very occupied with their experimental farm during the past few weeks.

The boys have sown oats and grass legumes and have also pulled out fence posts that were unnecessarily taking space that could be used for farming.

To do this work Morris Payne, Chastain and Jackson Implement dealers have again furnished the equipment for these students to use in learning the business of farming. With such outstanding support by merchants of Salem

Mothers-Daughters Meet 'n Eat Treat

The 29th annual Mother-Daughter Banquet held April 8, 1954, proved to be quite a success. The girls arrived with their mothers, and were greeted at the door by Junior girls who served as the welcoming committee.

The decorations and color scheme was followed through with pale green and pink crepe streamers. The centerpieces were beautiful bouquets of jonquils. For favgave the Mothers' response. Rosalyn Llyes sang "The Robe of Calvary", accompanied by Betty Jo Martin. The Girl's Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Baker, and accompanied by Mrs. Herbert Simpson, sang "All In An April Evening", and Waters Ripple and Flow". A play, "Betty's Bargain" was then presented under the direction of Miss Bush and two Student Coaches, Sharon Lee

Debate And Speech Contest

The District Debate and Speech Contest was held here April 10. Schools participating were Salem, Reitz, and New Albany.

There were two rounds of Debate with Reitz coming out on top with a total of 301 points. Salem was second with 294, and New Albany placed third with 278. The Salem Negative composed of Nancy Jo Batt and Bill Herrick won their two debates. The Affirmative, Clara Roop and Pat Allen, won one, and lost the other to Reitz.

New Albany placed first in Dramatic Declamation.

In Humorous Declamation, Olsson Huff was first and Bruce Jacobi, third.

Paul Rider of New Albany, Herbert Felder of Reitz, and Keith Pollard of Salem were rated first, second and third, respectively, in radio speaking which was held at WSLM and was judged by radio personnel.

Shirley Curtz of New Albany placed first in Poetry Reading with Warren Stewart of Salem getting second.

In Oratorical Declamation, Herschel Walden was first with Bob Branaman second.

The contestants rating first and second will have a chance to go to the state contest, with the exception of debate—only the first place team can go.

Judges for the contest were Mr. Waters from Hanover College, Don Martin, Ebert Whipple, and Miss Myrtle Esther Bush.

Mr. Harvey Wells, speech and debate coach, and District Chairman, has done very well with his inexperienced group of speech contestants, and should be highly praised for his untiring efforts.

Big Wheels!

Early in the year, the staff was chosen to edit the LYON. As this is a biennial publication, Junior and Senior classes are equally represented.

Everyone else could make mistakes, but not the typists. They had to find them, and correct them. Even after the close of school, the typists had pages to copy. This wasn't much fun when the halls were silent, except for the clicking of the typewriters.

This is a posed picture: Mary Jane, Lenetta, Nancy Jo, and Pat never worked at the same time.

Max and Martha copy scores of the past season's basketball games.

We are very proud of our school in its victories and its defeats.

We tried to play the game.
Sometimes we lost,
More often we won.

Softball

Coach McDonald's varsity Softball Team had a much better record this year than last year, winning five and losing four in the 1954 Softball campaign. This also has been the best Softball record since Coach McDonald has been with us; also when in defeat they went down by a very small number of runs.

During the Tourney we opened up by playing Corydon, and defeating them in the first round.

Our next game was with Brownstown who defeated us 7 to 6; we had nine hits to their three, but we just couldn't get to playing together.

The underclassmen through a year's experience should show much improvement for themselves and for S.H.S. in next year's season.

Coach Lee's 1953 cross country team during scheduled meets came out with five wins and no losses. There were three dual and two triangular meets; the thinlies won all their meets from their opponents with perfect and near perfect scores. At the season's end they came out on top in the Southeastern Conference championship, winning easily from Paoli and Scottsburg, competing against a rugged field in the Sectional, the Lions displayed their talent by placing second behind a strong Vincennes team. Running with the best teams in the State, the thinly clads finished the season by tying for seventh with Kokomo at the State.

Basketball, as everyone knows, reigns as king of sports here at Salem High School. This year was one of the more successful basketball seasons of Salem High. After going through the season with ten wins and eight losses, our team was defeated in the Sectional by Silver Creek by a very small margin, the Lions leading most of the game, but losing to the Dragons in the last few seconds of the game.

We were very proud of our boys and are looking forward to next season with confidence that next year's team will be as good or better.

The three top scorers were very evenly distributed in points with Jack Jackson out on top with a total of 179 points; coming out second was Charlie Rexroat with 150 points, and third was Jerry Horner with 147.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Jeanie Campbell, Norma Gater, Peggy Ellmore, Doris Devereux.

Fight! Team! Fight! This is the yell of all Salem High School fans as they are led by Jeanie, Norma, Peggy and Doris.

These four have worked on the older yells and introduced many new ones. Some of the new yells include the band, such as the "Bunny Hop." These have aroused much enthusiasm.

The yell leaders always go to all of the out of town ballgames as well as the home games. With these four girls leading the yells, the Gold and Black fans always keep the winning spirit.

It has been said that the enthusiasm for basketball is about half skill and half psychology. It certainly is true at Salem High School that with a good cheering section and some loud, snappy yells, the team will have better luck in hitting the goal.

One of the big highlights of the school year is the pep session held just before the Sectional. As you enter the gym, the band is playing and soon the cheerleaders start leading some good old S. H. S. yells to get everyone into the spirit. After the yells we have some "pep talks" by faculty members, backers of the team, and alumni. Then our able coach, Don McDonald, also gives a "pep talk," and introduces all the boys on the team.

After a few more yells, we all leave with a winning spirit. So, whether we win or lose, we know that the pep sessions add a lot to the sportsmanship of the students.

ROW 1: David Roberts, Butch Graves, Boyd Fleenor, Leonard Kendall, Ronnie Callahan. ROW 2: Charlie Gater, Larry Tabor, Joe Osborne, Don Jackson, Jimmy Hilton, Dennis Todd, Coach Jones.

Coach Jack Jones' second string players had a more successful season this year, coming out with ten wins and eight losses. They had a very good foul shooting: percentage was very good, hitting 217 out of 418 for a percentage of .519. We won the North Vernon game on fouls.

Scoring was fairly well distributed with Marvin (Butch) Graves coming out with a total of 166; second was Don Jackson with 119; third was Larry Tabor with 107.

These girls have been participating in softball, volleyball, basketball, ping-pong, badminton, leader's games, track, tumbling, or dancing, on Tuesdays and Thursdays throughout the school year.

The members enjoy the many social activities G. A. A. sponsors. This year, the girls hiked, picnicked, attended the basketball clinic and playday at I. U., had a Hobo party, sponsored several dances, had a volleyball and basketball playday, for eight neighboring high schools, gave new members the traditional rough initiation, and then took them swimming.

For six of the girls the great day came when they went to Purdue University for Wall Plaque Day.

Junior-Senior Prom

Want to dance, girls?

Enjoying time out.

Oh, I have to have your autograph.

No, I won't listen.

Tenderly

The Senior Class, guests of the Jolly Juniors, walked into an enchanting ocean-scene at the annual Junior-Senior Prom, May 18.

During the evening, soft strains of dance music were played by the Rhythm Aires of Columbus. Many twinkling stars encrested the blue sky ceiling overhead.

Highlighting the evening's enjoyment was the crowning of the King and Queen, chosen by popular vote of the Junior Class. The King and Queen of 1953, Gary Graves and Norma Gater, crowned the new rulers, King, Jack Chastain and Queen, Kay Williams.

The handiwork of the Juniors consisted of a beautiful bridge at the threshold and wishing wells on each side. The bleachers were transformed into a beautiful blue ocean, complete with a ship, Tenderly. The tables were attractively arranged and decorated with rocks, moss, and shells; favors were small boats carrying a cargo of jelly beans.
